The primary purpose of the food booth is to offer cultural food to festival patrons. The booth size will be 10' x 10'. It will consist of a tent, three 8' tables and two chairs. These items will be furnished by the Fort Bend Education Foundation. Booth set up by the Participant named above may begin set-up at 8:00 am on November 6, 2010 and be completed by 10:00 am. The booth must be manned and operational from 10:00 am until 3:00 pm. The booth must be properly cleaned and emptied of all personal property by 4:30 pm.

The cost per booth is $300.00. Payment by check, cash or credit card is acceptable. Checks must be payable to the Fort Bend Education Foundation (FBEF). Booths must be contracted by August 25, 2010. Booths are available on a first come, first serve basis. Booths will be guaranteed with receipt of payment.

Food vendors will be responsible for obtaining a health permit from the City of Sugar Land. To get the permit contact Jessica Spies at 281.275.2278 as soon as possible. The cost will be approximately $50.00 per permit.

We recommend you bring no more than 3 items to serve. These may be vegetarian or non vegetarian. It would be easiest to bring items that can be preserved and in chafing dishes (to be brought by the restaurant) and warmers. A fire extinguisher must be at the tent. All food items need to be pre-prepared. There is no facility to cook or clean on site. Electrical outlets are available. Please note that non-runny, finger foods styled foods are easiest; non-messy and lunch proportions are most appropriate. Last year's event had an attendance of almost 7,000 people in 4 hours, about 250-300 servings would be a reasonable number to plan on bringing. Each vendor is responsible for providing their own servers.

All design, decorations and materials in the booths must be approved by the FBEF. The following items are not acceptable at the event or in the booth: liquor, tobacco products, drugs, and weapons.

For Information, contact the Fort Bend Education Foundation with any questions at 281.634.1110.
